

KATH Annual Conference, September 11-12, 1998

"Conversations with the Past: Doing Oral History"

September 12, 1998

William T. Young Commonwealth Library Auditorium
University of Kentucky, Lexington

Friday, September 11

7:00-9:00 p.m.	Reception at Sayre School (in the Old Sayre Twin Parlors), 194 North Limestone
----------------	--

Saturday, September 12

8:30 - 9:00 a.m.	Registration in the foyer of the Auditorium, W.T. Young Commonwealth Library Continental breakfast sponsored by Lexington Community College
------------------	--

9:00-10:15 a.m.	Presentation - "Doing Oral History" <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• "What is Oral History?" by Terry Birdwhistell, Director of Oral History, Univ. of Ky.</li><li>• "Getting the Word: Oral History Research with Monticello Slave Decendents," by Zanne Randolph, Assistant Chief Researcher, Thomas Jefferson Memorial Association</li></ul>
-----------------	---

10:15-10:30 a.m.	Break
------------------	-------

10:30-12:00 noon	Panel - "Problems and Solutions" <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Moderator: George Herring, Department of History, University of Kentucky</li><li>• William Mulligan, Forrest Pogue Public History Program, Murray</li><li>• Willa Gentry, Mt. Zion local history initiative, Scott County</li><li>• John Ernst and Yvonne Mulligan, Ky. Vietnam veterans CD-ROM project, Morehead</li></ul>
------------------	--

12:00	Business Meeting, Election of New Executive Committee Members, and Presentation of Student Awards
-------	---

12:30-2:00 p.m.	Lunch at University of Kentucky Faculty Club Luncheon Speaker: Dwight B. Billings, Department of Sociology, University of Kentucky "When the Sun Set Crimson and the Moon Rose Red:' Misadventures of Oral History in the Kentucky Feud Country"
-----------------	--

2:00 p.m.	Tour of the W.T. Young Commonwealth Library
-----------	--

KATH ANNUAL CONFERENCE 1999
“Repopulating History: Women and the Curriculum”

Conference Agenda

Saturday, September 25, 1999; Ky. History Center, Frankfort

- 8:30 a.m. Registration at History Center; Breakfast and Break Refreshments provided by Morehead State University History Department; book exhibit on women’s history in Gift Shop (opens at 9 am)
- 9:00 a.m. Welcome by Randolph Hollingsworth, University of Kentucky, KATH President 1998-1999
Introduction, Betsy Brinson, Kentucky Historical Society
Gerda Lerner, “Women’s Studies--The Intellectual Revolution of the 20th Century”
- 10:30 a.m. Panel, “Doing Women’s History in Kentucky”
- A.G. Dunston, Eastern Kentucky University, moderator
  - Paul Fuller on his Laura Clay biography researched and written in 1960s
  - Corlia Logsdon on the Kentucky Department of Education and gender equity of the future
  - Nancy Taylor on her living history portrayal of Mary Lou Hollowell in Black Patch War
- 12:00 noon Business Meeting: slate of nominees, treasurer’s report, and student writing awards
$100 Tolson Award (for high schoolers) presented by Hugh Ridenour, KATH Board Member
$100 Clark Awards (for undergraduates) presented by Melissa McEuen, KATH President-Elect and Marshall Myers, President of Madison Co. Civil War Round Table
- 12:30 p.m. Buffet Lunch for pre-registered attendees only (brown-baggers welcome to attend presentation)
Introduction, Melissa McEuen, Transylvania University, KATH President 1999-2000
Elsa Barkley Brown, University of Maryland, “Conceptualizing and Teaching the History of Women of Color”
- 2:00 p.m. Concurrent Sessions and Table Displays
- MP A* Ann Butler (KSU) & Steven Weisenburger (UK) on Modern Medea
- MP B* Kathy Johnson (U of L), Karen McDaniel (KSU), Gae Broadwater (AAUW) of the Women’s History Coalition of Ky. and caucus of WS faculty on future state-wide collaboration
- CR A* Betsy Brinson (KHS) & Fon Gordon (UK) on women in Ky. civil rights movement
- CR B* Judi Jennings (Ky. Foundation for Women), Catherine Fosl (Women’s Intl. League for Peace and Freedom), Emily Bingham (Bellarmine College) & Carridder Jones:
“The Art of Writing Women’s History and Social Change”
- KHC entr* Tours of the new History Center by Vicky Middleswarth (KHS)
- table* Karen Cheser & Terri Morford on Ky. and the National Assoc. for Multicultural Education
- table* Rebecca Hanley & Betty Fugate (KHS) on Ky. Junior Historical Society and Natl. History Day
- table* David Arnold (Midway College) on the new Center for Women, Diversity, and Leadership

Patron Sponsors ($1000 and above):

College of Humanistic Studies at Murray State Univ.
Council on Postsecondary Education
Kentucky Commission on Women
Kentucky Historical Society
Kentucky Humanities Council
U.K. Lexington Chancellor
University of Louisville

Conference Co-Sponsors:

Berry Hill Mansion
Kentucky Department of Education
Kentucky Foundation for Women
Kentucky State University CESKAA
Lexington Community College
Midway College
Morehead State University

The 2000 Annual Conference
"The Pleasures of Teaching History: A Celebration of KATH's 25th Anniversary"
 September 22-23, 2000
Kentucky History Center, Frankfort

Friday Sept. 22, 2000

7:00-9:00 p.m. Reception for KATH members and guests:
Orlando Brown House, part of Liberty Hall Historic Site
 218 Wilkinson Street, Frankfort; 502-227-2560

Saturday Sept. 23, 2000

8:30 a.m. Registration at History Center;
 Continental Breakfast sponsored by Morehead State University History Department

9:00 a.m. Welcome by Melissa McEuen, Ph.D., President of KATH
Plenary Session Speech: "The Pleasures of Teaching History" by James Axtell, Ph.D., Kenan Professor of Humanities, College of William and Mary

10:00 a.m. Break

10:15 a.m. Break-out Sessions/Panels on Teaching Social Studies and History

- Elementary and Middle School Session moderated by Rebecca Hanly
History Center Classroom A
  - Janeen Miracle (1-2 years experience), Second Street School, Frankfort
  - Brenda Hall (15 years experience), Green County Middle School, Campbellsville
  - Greg Rayer (26 years experience) Lexington Traditional Magnet School, Lexington
- High School Session moderated by Hugh Ridenour
History Center Classroom B
  - Brad Burns (1-2 years experience), Pleasure Ridge Park High School, Louisville
  - Nancy Bradshaw (13 years experience), Owensboro High School, Owensboro
  - Kitty Stephens, Paul Lawrence Dunbar High School (retired), and Kentucky Virtual High School, Lexington
- College/University Session moderated by Matt Schoenbachler
History Center Multipurpose Room
  - Melanie Goan, a graduate of the U.K. Preparing Future Faculty Program, recent Ph.D. and part-time instructor
  - Jake Gibbs (12 years experience), Lexington Community College
  - Dan Bradshaw (18 years experience), Ky. Wesleyan College

11:00 a.m. Break

11:15-11:45 a.m. Large Group Discussion/Findings from Break-out Sessions, Multipurpose Room
 Moderator: Marlene Helm, Secretary, Ky. Education, Arts, and Humanities Cabinet

11:45- History of KATH, by Anita Sanford Tolson, KATH Treasurer and Charter Member/President

12:15 p.m.
12:15-12:45 p.m.	Business Meeting and Presentation of Student Writing Awards: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Treasurer's Report</li> <li>• Nomination of Slate of Officers for the Board - and election</li> <li>• New Business: Herring Award</li> <li>• Hugh Ridenour, chair of Tolson Award Committee</li> <li>• John Ernst, chair of Clark Awards Committee, and Charles Hay, Madison County Civil War Round Table</li> </ul>
12:45 p.m.	Lunch and Plenary Session Speech: "The Joy (and Otherwise) of Teaching: Some Random Reflections on 31 Years in Wildcat Country" by George Herring, Ph.D. Introduction by John Ernst, Ph.D., KATH President-Elect
2:00 p.m.	Teachers' Workshop on American Indians by Professor James Axtell Click here to see Professor Axtell's suggested resources, both in print and on the web

The 2001 Annual Conference
"Politics: Democracy is Messy Business"
September 14-15, 2001
Centre College, Norton Center, in Danville

Friday
Sept. 14, 2001

7:00-9:00 p.m.     Reception for KATH members and guests:
Board Room of the Norton Center, Centre College
Sponsored by the Eastern Kentucky University Center for Kentucky History and Politics

Saturday
Sept. 15, 2001

8:30 a.m.     Registration at Norton Center;
Continental Breakfast sponsored by Morehead State University History Department

9:00 a.m.     Welcome by John Ernst, Ph.D., President of KATH
Controversial Elections in American History by Mark Summers, Ph.D., University of Kentucky Professor of History and C-SPAN Analyst
Introduction by David Bowden, Elizabethtown Community College

10:15 a.m.     Break

10:30 a.m.     Retrospective Roundtable: 2000 Presidential Election

- Nicki Patton, Chairwoman of the Democratic Party of Kentucky
- Ellen Williams, Chairwoman of the Republican Party of Kentucky

Moderated by Clarence Wyatt, Associate Professor of History at Centre College

12:00 noon     Business Meeting and Presentation of Student Writing Awards
New Business: Kentuckiana Digital Library

12:30 p.m.     Lunch at the Carnegie Club

1:15 p.m.     Luncheon Speech by Congressman Romano Mazzoli, Senior Distinguished Fellow in Law and Public Policy, University of Louisville
See his Congressional biography.
Introduction by Mark Wetherington, Director of the Filson Historical Society

The 2002 Annual Conference
The Land of the Free?
Civil Liberties in Times of National Crisis
 September 20-21, 2002
Kentucky History Center, Frankfort

Friday
 Sept. 20, 2002

7:30-9:00 p.m.	Book Signing with Howard Zinn and Reception for KATH members and guests: Poor Richard's Books 233 West Broadway Street, Frankfort; 502-223-8018
----------------	--

Saturday
 Sept. 21, 2002

8:30 a.m.	Registration at History Center's Ann Street Desk; Continental Breakfast sponsored by Morehead State University History Department
-----------	--

9:00 a.m.	Welcome by Rebecca Hanly, Ph.D., President of KATH Introduction by John Hennen, KATH Board Member Opening Address and Question-Answer Session with Professor Howard Zinn , professor emeritus at Boston University
-----------	--

10:15 a.m.	Break
------------	--------------

10:30 a.m.	Panel: "Teaching Civil Liberties in the Classroom" Moderator: John Hennen, Morehead State University Panelists: • Jeff Williams, Northern Kentucky University • Sandy Stults, Clark Middle School, retired • Suzy Post, former director of the American Civil Liberties Union, Kentucky
------------	---

12:15-12:45 p.m.	Business Meeting and Presentation of Student Writing Awards: • Treasurer's Report • Nomination of Slate of Officers for the Board - and election • Hugh Ridenour, chair of Tolson Award Committee • Carrie Dowdy, chair of Clark Awards Committee , and Charles Hay, Madison County Civil War Round Table • Ellen Emerick, chair of Herring Award Committee
------------------	--

12:30 p.m.	Lunch and Plenary Session Speech: by Michael Dawahare, Ph.D., Vice President for Institutional Advancement and political science professor, Georgetown College Introduction by Ellen Emerick, Ph.D., KATH Board Member
------------	--

The 2003 Annual Conference
Beyond the Basics: *Tools for Historical Thinking
 September 19-20, 2003
Georgetown College, Georgetown

Friday Sept. 19, 2003

7:30-9 p.m. A reception at the Georgetown and Scott County Museum, located in the old Post Office, 229 East Main Street

Saturday Sept. 20, 2003

8:30 a.m. Registration at Georgetown College Fitness Center (next to Alumni Gym); Continental Breakfast sponsored by Morehead State University History Department

9:00 a.m. Conference activities take place in the John L. Hill Chapel
Welcome by Ellen L. Emerick, Ph.D., President of KATH
Introduction by Lorie Maltby, President-Elect of KATH
Keynote Address by Dr. Mary Beth Norton, Department of History, Cornell University, New York

10:30 Break

10:45 a.m. Breakout Sessions:

- "Using Technology to Promote Critical Thinking" by Allison McAdams, Social Studies teacher at duPont Manual High School; Anne Kearney and Doug Cantrell, KCTCS professors using the Kentucky Virtual University; Enid Wohlstein, Director of the Kentucky Virtual Library
- "Using Local Historical Sites to Encourage Critical Thinking" by Ann Bevins, Georgetown and Scott County Museum; Becky Shipp, Kentucky Heritage Council
- "Teaching American History Initiative" moderated by Rebecca Hanly, Kentucky Historical Society; learn about these innovative projects based in Murray, Shelbyville, Paris, and Harlan; Teaching American History Grant Program
- "An Idea Sharing Session" facilitated by Rob Weise, Eastern Kentucky University

12:00 noon Business Meeting and Presentation of Student Writing Awards:

- Treasurer's Report
- New Business: A motion for a new KATH Executive Board Structure (updating the postsecondary representatives to reflect current Ky. Council on Postsecondary Education classifications)
- A Fond Farewell to Anita Sanford Tolson for nearly 30 Years of Service to KATH
- Nomination of Slate of Officers for the Board - and election
- Allison McAdams, chair of Tolson Award Committee
- Lorie Maltby, chair of Clark Awards Committee; and co-presenter, Charles Hay, Madison County Civil War Round Table
- Ellen Emerick, chair of Herring Award Committee

12:30 p.m. Lunch at the Fitness Center
Plenary Session Address by Jack Furlong, Director of Foundations of the Liberal Arts, Transylvania University, winner of the Kentucky ACORN Award (2000) and Carnegie Assoc. Kentucky

Professor of the Year in 2002. He is a professor philosophy whose work and teaching have been shaped by his interest in interdisciplinary education and critical thinking. He will address the more controversial issues that critical thinking opens up with students.

Introduction by Melanie Beals Goan, KATH Board member

The 2004 Annual Conference

Developing a Global Perspective:
Teaching American History in the Context of the World
September 10-11, 2004
Jefferson Community College, Louisville

Friday Sept. 10, 2004

7:30-9:00 p.m. A reception at the Frazier Historical Arms Museum, 829 West Main Street, downtown Louisville

Saturday Sept. 11, 2004

8:30 a.m. Registration and Breakfast at the Auditorium at Jefferson Community College, Southwest

9:00 a.m. Welcome by Lorie Maltby, President of KATH; and Tony Newberry, JCC President and C.E.O.
Introduction by Ellen Emerick, Georgetown College
Opening Address by Alison Games, Department of History, Georgetown University, Washington D.C.

10:30 a.m. Break

10:45 a.m. Breakout Sessions:

- "Using Technology to Interact with the World" by Allison McAdams, Social Studies teacher at duPont Manual High School
- "The Changing Face of Louisville in 2004" by Omar Ayyash, Director, Louisville Metro Office for International Affairs
- "Opportunities Abroad: Connecting Students to the World," Panel Discussion moderated by Jeffrey Williams, Northern Kentucky University
- "Teaching September 11 from Global and Political Perspectives" Michael Cairo, Georgetown College

12:00 noon Luncheon

1:00 p.m. Business Meeting and Presentation of Student Writing Awards:

- Treasurer's Report
- Tolson Award
- Clark Awards
- Herring Award

1:15 p.m. After-Lunch Address by Raymond Betts, founding member of KATH and faculty emeritus professor of European History at the University of Kentucky, and author of A History of Popular Culture: More of Everything, Faster and Brighter published by Routledge in April 2004.
Introduction by Francis LeRoy, KATH Board member

The 2005 Annual Conference
Thanks for the Memories: *Examining Historical Perception
 October 1, 2005
Kentucky History Center, Frankfort

Friday Sept. 30, 2005

7:30-9 p.m. Pre-conference event at Capital City Museum, downtown Frankfort

Saturday Oct. 1, 2005

8:30 a.m. Registration and breakfast
Ann Street Desk, Kentucky History Center

9:00 - 10:30 a.m. Welcome and Introduction of Speaker by Carrie Dowdy, President of KATH
Keynote Address and Q&A Session
 with W. Fitzhugh Brundage, Ph.D.
 William B. Umstead Professor of History and Director of Graduate Studies
 History Department, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

10:30 Break

10:45 a.m. Concurrent Sessions:

- "Oral History in the Classroom," a panel moderated by Dr. Douglas Boyd, Kentucky Oral History Commission
Bonnie Hall, Blackberry Elementary School, Ransom (Pike County)
Liese Rhodus, Model Laboratory School, Richmond (Madison County)
- "The Veterans Project," Dr. Jonathan Reynolds, History Department, Northern Kentucky University
- "Cora Wilson Stewart and the Moonlight Schools: Myth, Legend, and History," Dr. Yvonne Baldwin, Geography, Government and History Department, Morehead State University

noon Business Meeting
 Proposed Board Slate for 2005-06
Each year, the executive committee presents a new slate of officers for approval at the annual fall conference. If you wish to be considered for a position in the future, please contact the KATH president.

- President-Elect - Melanie Beals Goan, University of Kentucky
- Secretary - Lorie Maltby, Henderson Community College
- Newsletter Editor - Kate Hesseldenz, Kentucky Historical Society
- Public Historian - Bethany Sterling, Behringer-Crawford Museum
- K-12 Representative (one of two) - Jamie Case, Clark Middle School
- Private/Independent College Representative - Lisa Lykins, Georgetown College
- Research University Representative - Thomas Mackey, University of Louisville
- Member-at-Large - Rich Holl, Hazard Community and Technical College

12:15 p.m. Luncheon and Address
 World War I in Russian Memory, by Karen Petrone, Ph.D.
 History Department, University of Kentucky

1:30
p.m.

Book Signing of "A Southern Past: A Clash of Race and Memory" with Dr. Brundage and Behind the Scenes Tour of the Kentucky History Center with the KHS staff

The 2006 Annual Conference
Valor and Honor: *Teaching Peace and War in a Time of Conflict
 September 30, 2006
Northern Kentucky University, Covington

Friday Sept. 29, 2006

7:30-9:00 p.m.	Pre-Conference Reception at James A. Ramage Civil War Museum , Fort Wright, Kentucky
----------------	---

Saturday Sept. 30, 2006

8:30 a.m.	Registration and breakfast University Center , Northern Kentucky University
-----------	--

9:00 - 10:30 a.m.	Welcome by Northern KY. University President James Votruba Introduction of Speaker by Francois LeRoy, President of KATH "Classroom Massacres: The Bore Wars," Keynote Address and Q&amp;A Session with Michael C. C. Adams, Professor Emeritus, History Department, Northern Kentucky University Violent conflicts continue to play an important part in human life, impacting most societies. But how do we teach this vital subject without massacring student interest ('How many rebels were at Gettysburg by the third hour of the first day?' — 'Boring!' they cry) and what are our resources for stimulating interest in the subject of war on the part of a diverse range of students?
-------------------	--

10:30	Break
-------	--------------

10:45 a.m.	Concurrent Sessions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Panel: "Teaching Peace: Peace and Justice Studies at Bluegrass Community and Technical College," moderated by Steven White, History, Bluegrass Community and Technical College; with BCTC faculty: Eileen Abel (English and Women's Studies), Greg Feeney (Communications), Rebecca Glasscock (Geography), Leon Lane (Anthropology)</li> <li>• Panel: "World War II and Kentuckians: Connecting the Generations," moderated by Yvonne H. Baldwin, History, Morehead State University; with MSU Seniors: Ashley Burke, J. David Clinger, Joey Todd</li> <li>• "We Helped in Thousands: Public Archaeology and Preservation at a Civil War Cannon Battery," Jeannine Kreinbrink, Anthropology, Northern Kentucky University</li> </ul>
------------	---

noon	Business Meeting and Luncheon Proposed New Member for the KATH Executive Board Each year, the executive committee presents a new slate of officers for approval at the annual fall conference. If you wish to be considered for a position in the future, please contact the KATH president.
------	---

1:15 p.m.	Panel: "Bringing War Into the Classroom," moderated by John Ernst, Morehead State University, with participants: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Michael C.C. Adams, Northern Kentucky University</li> <li>• Craig Grimm, Oldham County High school</li> </ul>
-----------	--

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• James Klotter, Georgetown College and State Historian of Kentucky</li><li>• Bob Topmiller, Eastern Kentucky University and a Khe Sanh Vet</li></ul>
1:30 p.m.	Post-conference Event A guided tour of National Underground Railroad Freedom Center in Cincinnati ($9.50 admission extra)

The 2007 Annual Conference

Bridging Communities of Learning: The Meaning and Purposes of History

October 5-6, 2007

University of Kentucky, Lexington

Friday

October 5, 2007

7:30-
9:00
p.m.

Pre-Conference Reception

Lexmark Public Room, 209 Main Building, University of Kentucky

Saturday

October 6, 2007

8:30 a.m.

Registration and breakfast

UK Student Center addition, second floor welcome station

9:00 a.m.

Keynote Address

"Using History to Come to Terms with Evils in the Past"

Dr. David P. Thelen, Distinguished Professor Emeritus, Department of History, Indiana University, Bloomington

10:15
a.m.

Concurrent Sessions

- "Teaching Native American History," Dr. John Bowes, Eastern Kentucky University
- "Learning from South Africa's Experience at a Time of Transition," Dr. David Thelen, Indiana University

11:15
a.m.

Break

11:30
a.m.

Concurrent Sessions

- "Reel History: Visualizing the Past," Dr. Dan Smith, University of Kentucky
- "Reaching a New Audience: The Challenges of Writing a 4th Grade History Textbook," Dr. Tracy Campbell, University of Kentucky

12:45
a.m.

Lunch

1:45 a.m.

Business Meeting and Conclusion

The 2008 Annual Conference

Tradition and Transforming: Teaching East History in a Global Setting

September 26-27, 2008

The Frankfort Christian Academy, Frankfort, KY

Friday

September 26, 2008

6:00 -
7:30
p.m.

Pre-Conference Dinner/Reception

Buffalo Trace Meeting Room, 1001 Wilkinson Boulevard (US 127), Frankfort, Kentucky

Saturday

September 27, 2008

8:00 a.m.

Registration and Breakfast

The Frankfort Christian Academy, Cafeteria/Chapel Area

9:00 a.m.

Keynote Address

"The Asian American Experience"

Dr. Roger Daniels, Distinguished Professor Emeritus, Department of History, University of Cincinnati

10:00
a.m.

Break

10:15
a.m.

Concurrent Sessions #1

- "Still the Shrimp Among Whales: How Korean Studies Challenges American Educators," Dr. Carol Medlicott, Northern Kentucky University
- "Apocalyptic Visions: Hiroshima and Nagasaki and Contemporary Japanese Culture," Dr. Doug Slaymaker, University of Kentucky

11:15
a.m.

Break

11:30
a.m.

Concurrent Sessions #2

- "Incarceration of the Japanese Americans, 1942-1945," Dr. Roger Daniels
- "Crossroads of Commerce and Culture: The Silk Road in Chinese History," Dr. Robert Foster, Berea College

12:30
a.m.

Break

12:45
a.m.

Lunch, Chapel/Cafeteria

1:45 a.m.

Business Meeting and Conclusion

2009 Annual Conference
Uncovering the Mysteries of Historical Thinking: *Using Research to Inform Classroom Practice
September 12, 2009
Eastern Kentucky University, Perkins Center

8:00 am Registration and Breakfast

8:50 am Opening Remarks:

Carolyn Dupont, 2009-2009 KATH President

Welcome: Dr. Sherwood Thompson, Associate Dean, EKU College of Education

9:00 am Keynote Address:

"Uncovering the Mysteries of Historical Thinking: Using Research to Inform Classroom Practice"

Dr. Daisy Martin, Stanford History Education Group

10:00 am Break

10:15 am

Concurrent Sessions:

- "Rethinking General Education: Critical Thinking vs. Coverage"

Dr. Joanne Melish, University of Kentucky

Kate Black, University of Kentucky Archives

- "Going to the Source: Teaching With Primary Sources"

Kate Hesseldenz, Kentucky Historical Society

Chad Owens, University of Louisville Archives

11:15 am Break

11:30 am

Concurrent Sessions:

- "Teaching the Terrifying Topic: Race, Religion, and Sexuality"

Dr. Paul Jones, Transylvania University

Dr. Mark Jackson, Transylvania University

- "New Pedagogy and New Media: Digital Storytelling in the History Classroom "

Dr. Chad Berry, Berea College

12:45 pm

Lunch

- Lunchtime address: "Really Too Obvious!: Very Human Questions for Framing the Story of the Past" by Dr. Thomas Owen, University of Louisville
- Paper Prize Presentations
- Business meeting and Conclusion

Thirty-fifth Annual Conference
“Political Revolutions in the United States”
Saturday, September 25, 2010
Bluegrass Community and Technical College, Cooper Campus
Lexington, Kentucky

Keynoter

Craig Thompson Friend, Ph.D.

Professor of History and Director of Public History, North Carolina State University

Conference Schedule

- 8:00 am      Registration and Breakfast
- 8:50 am      Opening Remarks: Rick Smoot, BCTC, KATH President
Welcome: Augusta Julian, President/CEO, BCTC
- 9:00 am      Keynote Address: Craig T. Friend, NCSU
"Interpreting America: Using the Memorial Landscape to Teach the Past and the Present"
- 10:15 am      Concurrent Sessions:
"The Haitian Revolution: Teaching Repercussions and Legacies in the Atlantic World"
Jeremy Popkin, University of Kentucky
"Teaching 20th-Century Appalachia: Classroom Strategies and Resources"
John Hennen and Tom Kiffmeyer, Morehead State University
Rob Weise, Eastern Kentucky University
- 11:30 am      A Conversation Between the Creative Voices of the Kentucky Civil Rights Project facilitated by Kim Lady Smith (former director of KY Oral History Commission)
Douglas A. Boyd, Director, Nunn Center for Oral History, University of Kentucky
Catherine Fosl, Director of Braden Institute, University of Louisville
Gregory Hardison, Director of Museum Theatre, Kentucky Historical Society
J. Blaine Hudson, Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, University of Louisville
Tracy E. K'Meyer, History Department Chair, University of Louisville
Arthur Rouse, Producer/Director of The Media Collaboratory/Video Editing Services
- 12:45 pm      Lunch and presentation: Craig T. Friend, NCSU
"Remembering Kentucke: Public Memory in Nineteenth-Century America"
Paper Prize Presentations, Business Meeting and Conclusion